Delivering the highest caliber music in the European soirée tradition

In the Beginning

The Absolute Music Chamber Series was founded in 2009 by Richard Sherman, MSU professor of flute, in collaboration with Kathy Holcomb, proprietor of the Absolute Gallery in Lansing, Michigan's Old Town.

The Mission – to present the highest caliber music in the European soirée tradition where music, art and hospitality are enjoyed in an intimate and informal setting.

As the complexity of producing an annual series grew, so did the work! Sherman and Holcomb, the founding partners, were humbled and grateful when a group of dedicated patrons formed a Friends group to assist with organizational and concert events

Friends of Absolute Music (FAM) was officially incorporated in the summer of 2011. A volunteer board, including Richard Sherman as artistic director and Kathy Holcomb as the site coordinator, conducts the business and activities associated with the Absolute Music Chamber Series.

As a Friend you can help

- Identify chamber music lovers to add to the Absolute Music e--mail list
- Invite others to accompany you to the concerts
- Get involved! Volunteer to help on concert nights, serve on a committee, assume leadership role in FAM activities
- Help identify community and corporate sponsors for the concert series
- Make a financial contribution in support of the Absolute Music Chamber Series
